Overarching Statement of Commitment

In the interests of aspiring to the best possible outcomes for all parties, the OMF agrees to use its best endeavours to provide the highest quality teaching and training to the Applicant and to act at all times in accordance with its Guiding Ethical Principles. In return we expect our Applicants to use their best endeavours to cooperate with, and participate fully, in the relevant Course or Training Programme or Event; and to commit and adhere to the Guiding Ethical Principles while engaged in all related activities, correspondence and interactions with OMF personnel, staff and trainers. These General Terms and Conditions are supported by a range of additional policies and procedures, namely:

- OMF Teacher Training Agreement
- OMF Fitness to Practice Policy and Procedure
- OMF Complaints Policy and Procedure
- OMF Disciplinary Policy and Procedure
- OMF External Social Media Policy
- OMC Guiding Ethical Principles
- OMF Data Protection Policy

In addition to these general terms and conditions, those who engage with the OMF agree to operate within the procedural guidance of all policies relevant to their engagement.

Application

1. These terms and conditions shall apply to the provision of all Courses, Training Programmes or Events by the OMF to the Applicant.

Basis of these Terms and Conditions

2. These Terms and Conditions shall come into effect when either:
 - An Applicant completes the Online Booking Process; or
 - Upon receipt by the OMF of an electronic or hard copy of a signed Contract for Services, at which point these Terms and Conditions shall be deemed incorporated into the Contract for Services.
3. Save for terms pertaining to the relevant Training in the Online Booking Process or the Contract for Services, any descriptive matter or advertising issued by the OMF, and any descriptions contained in the OMF brochures, social media platforms, their website or partner promotional materials, are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the Training Courses or Programmes or Events described in them; They shall not form part of these Terms and Conditions nor have any contractual force.
4. These Terms and Conditions apply to the exclusion of any other terms that you may seek to impose or incorporate, or which are implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing.
5. Any Contract for Services is only valid for acceptance for a period of 30 calendar days from its date of issue.

Cancellation

6. If you have not commenced the event, you have a statutory right to cancel and receive a full refund, within 14 days (cooling off period) of submitting your application. If you commence the event during the 14-day cooling off period, your right to cancel with a full refund is withdrawn and you will be liable to pay the full fee.
7. In addition to your statutory rights, you may cancel up to 4 weeks before the event start date. The following administrative charges will apply in these circumstances:
 - 10% of the overall course / training fee with a minimum administrative fee of £30 for UK transactions / £50 for transactions outside the UK.
8. If you cancel within 4 weeks of the event start date, the following charges will apply:
 - 100% of the overall event fee.

If the OMF is able to fill your place with a fee-paying participant, we may be able to transfer you onto a later course at a discounted rate or a part refund may be offered; these options are entirely at the discretion of the OMF.

9. All cancellation requests must be emailed to the OMF at admin@oxfordmindfulness.org with 'Cancellation Request' in the subject line. Until an acknowledgement is received by the OMF, the cancellation request will not be valid or effective.
10. If a refund is approved by the OMF, it will be made through the original mode of payment only, unless the original mode of payment has expired in which case new details will be obtained.

Changes to the Training

11. The OMF shall use reasonable endeavours to supply Events to the Applicant in accordance with published / promotional communication. The OMF reserves the right to edit the content of any of the Events at any time and without notice, as required to remain up to date with current research and curricula design.
12. The OMF shall use reasonable endeavours to honour published event dates. Unforeseen, exceptional circumstances may require teacher / trainer substitution or re-scheduling of dates which would be communicated to the Applicant at the earliest opportunity should such circumstances arise. Refunds are not offered in the event of trainer / teacher substitution. In the case of date changes, the OMF will work with Applicants on a case-by-case basis to consider alternative arrangements (such as transfer to an alternative date).
13. The OMF reserves the right to amend these terms if necessary to comply with any applicable law or regulatory requirement, or if the amendment will not materially affect the nature or quality of the Events, and the OMF shall notify the Applicant in any such event.
14. Notwithstanding the above sub-clauses, the OMF reserves the right to cancel Events at any time, without incurring additional liability to the Applicant. In such circumstances, the OMF will offer (at its sole discretion) alternative dates or a refund.

Charges and Payment

15. Payment should be made by the Applicant using the registration page appropriate for the relevant Event or via any web-enabled link the OMF has provided. Invoices may only be raised with agreement from the OMF.
16. Payment of any OMF invoice is due as per the terms on each invoice, to the bank account provided on the invoice. Interest on any overdue sum may be payable from the payment due date.
17. All sums payable to the OMF under this agreement are exclusive of VAT and an amount equal to any VAT chargeable on those sums will be due on delivery of a VAT invoice. Currently the OMF does not charge VAT on services provided.
18. Unless agreed in writing by the OMF, no place is secure on an Event until full payment has been received. Once an invoice has been raised your place is dependent on prompt payment within the stated payment terms. Your place may be released (and you will be advised) if these are not met.
19. Responsibility for payment remains with the Applicant, if an employer or sponsor does not pay the invoice the Applicant will be liable to make payment or meet the cancellation charges.
20. Charges will apply regardless of any non-attendance.

Confidentiality

21. The OMF may be given access to confidential information from the Applicant in order to perform its obligations under the Agreement i.e. processing applications. Confidential information shall not be deemed to include information that:
 - is or becomes publicly known other than through any act or omission of the receiving party,
 - was in the other party's lawful possession before the disclosure,
 - is lawfully disclosed to the receiving party by a third party without restriction on disclosure; or
 - is independently developed by the other party, which independent development can be shown by written evidence.
22. Subject to the preceding paragraph, both the OMF and the Applicant shall hold the confidential information (obtained in any way via engagement with the OMF) in confidence and not make confidential information available to any third party, or use the confidential information for any purpose other than engagement with the Event.
23. A party may disclose confidential information to the extent such confidential information is required to be disclosed by law, by any governmental or other regulatory authority or by a court or other authority of competent jurisdiction, provided that, to the extent it is legally permitted to do so, it gives the other party as much notice of such disclosure as possible and, where notice of disclosure is not prohibited and is given in accordance with these paragraphs, it takes into account the reasonable requests of the other party in relation to the content of such disclosure.
24. The Applicant acknowledges that their information may be used by the OMF on a strictly anonymous basis without limitation including compiling and publishing reports and publishing feedback.

Applicant's Obligations

25. The Applicant agrees to:

- Co-operate with the OMF in all matters relating to the Events.
- Provide the OMF and its employees, agents, consultants and subcontractors with any information which may reasonably be required by the OMF in the organisation of the Events, including, but not limited to, details in respect of the Applicant(s) and ensure that such information is complete and accurate in all material respects; and
- If applicable, where Events are being delivered at its premises, provide the OMF with (i) access, training space and any equipment necessary for the delivery of the Training; and (ii) such facilities as are reasonably notified to the Applicant in advance.

Data Protection

26. The OMF is committed to ensuring that personal data is handled appropriately and in compliance with data protection law, including the Data Protection Act of 2018 and the EU General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR).
27. The OMF is registered as a data controller with the Office of the Information Commissioner and collects and processes information about Applicants for various teaching, research and administrative purposes. We shall comply with any request or notice we receive from a data subject in this capacity as a data controller.
28. The Applicant may be asked to provide some personal information in order to enable the provision of certain services. By supplying this information, you are consenting to the OMF holding and using it for the purposes for which it was provided. Information provided will be kept for as long as is necessary to fulfil that purpose.
29. Purposes for which information is held can include, but is not limited to:
- General administration requiring personal and course details.
 - Assessment of applications for suitability for Events.
 - Management of training processes such as progress and competency reviews and teacher training certification.
 - Alumni operations, including fundraising.
 - Provision of advice and support to Applicants via, amongst others, academic staff.
 - Applicant services and internal research, including monitoring quality and performance.
30. Employees, contractors and agents of the OMF may be given access to any personal information which is collected, but its use shall be limited to the performance of their duties. OMF employees, contractors and agents who have access to Applicants personal information are required to keep that information confidential.
31. The accuracy of personal information provided by Applicants may also be checked by the OMF against relevant external sources. The OMF undertakes to maintain data in secure conditions, and to process and disclose data only within the terms of its data protection notification.
32. The details above indicate the nature of this notification but are not exhaustive. The OMF is reliant on Applicants for much of the data held: please help the OMF keep records up to date by notifying them of any alterations to personal details.
33. Except (i) to the extent that we are required to do so by law, (ii) in connection with any legal proceedings (including prospective legal proceedings), or (iii) in order to establish, exercise or defend the legal rights of OMF, will not disclose your personal information to any other party without first obtaining permission.

Liability

34. The OMF will be liable to you for any direct loss or damage you suffer if we either fail to carry out our obligations under these terms to a reasonable standard, or breach any relevant duties that we owe to you that are imposed on us by law (including if we cause death or personal injury to you by our negligence), but not to the extent that such failure is attributable to your own fault or the fault of a third party.
35. Our liability to you in the case of loss or damage other than for death or personal injury or fraud is limited to a reasonable amount having regard to such factors as whether the damage was due to a negligent act or omission by us.
36. We will not be liable to you for events outside our control which we could not have foreseen or prevented even if we had taken reasonable care. Events outside our control include; industrial action, over or under demand from applicants, staff illness, significant changes to our funding, severe weather, fire, civil disorder, political unrest, government restrictions and concern with regard to the transmission of serious illness. In such circumstances, we reserve the right to change or cancel parts, or all, of the Event.
37. The OMF cannot accept responsibility, and expressly excludes liability to the fullest extent permissible by law, for:
 - All damage to your property (including to personal I.T. equipment, vehicles and bicycles parked on OMF premises or OMF rented buildings) unless it is caused by the negligence or fault of the OMF or its staff.
 - The non-return of work submitted for assessment.
 - Personal injuries or death except in so far as it is caused by the negligence of the OMF or its staff.
 - All indirect and consequential losses, however arising; and loss of opportunity and loss of income or profit, however arising.
38. Any remaining liability of the OMF (in contract, tort, breach of statutory duty, misrepresentation or any other liabilities) is limited to the value of training fees paid by or on behalf of the prospective trainees to the OMF, or the amount, if any, the OMF receives from its insurers in respect of that particular loss, whichever is the greater. The only exception to this is in cases of any liability in negligence for personal injury or death.
39. The OMF shall have no liability under these terms if it is prevented from or delayed in performing its obligations with regards to the Event, or from carrying on its business by: acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond its reasonable control, including without limitation: strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving the workforce of the OMF or any other party), failure of a utility service or transport or telecommunications network, act of God, war, riot, civil commotion, malicious damage, compliance with any law or governmental order, rule, regulation or direction, accident, breakdown of plant or machinery, fire, flood, storm or default of suppliers or subcontractors, provided that the Customer is notified of such an event and its expected duration. Under such circumstances the OMF would attempt (as is reasonably and financially feasible) to provide alternative Event(s).

Intellectual Property Rights

40. All intellectual property rights in or arising out of or in connection with the Events, including any associated Training Materials shall be owned by the OMF (unless OMF advise otherwise).
41. No reproductions, scans or copies (wholly or in part) shall be made of the Event materials without the prior written consent of the OMF.

Termination

42. Without affecting any other right or remedy available to it, either party to the Agreement may terminate it with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other party if:
 - The other party commits a material breach of any term of the Agreement (including any subsequent Agreements / Contracts which are relevant to specific engagement).
 - Any subsequent agreements are breached, and relevant policies and procedures are instigated which result in a termination (such as fitness to practice or disciplinary proceedings).
 - The other party takes any step or action in connection with its entering administration, provisional liquidation, bankruptcy or any composition or arrangement with its creditors (other than in relation to a solvent restructuring), being wound up (whether voluntarily or by order of the court, unless for the purpose of a solvent restructuring), having a receiver appointed to any of its assets or ceasing to carry on business or, if the step or action is taken in another jurisdiction, in connection with any analogous procedure in the relevant jurisdiction.
 - The other party suspends, or threatens to suspend, or ceases or threatens to cease to carry on all or a substantial part of its training.
43. Without affecting any other right or remedy available to it, the OMF may terminate the Agreement with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Applicant if the Applicant fails to pay any amount due under the Agreement on the due date for payment.
44. If this happens, the Applicant agrees to return any of the Materials which have not been fully paid for.

Withdrawal of Services

45. The OMF reserves the right to make variations to or withdraw services if such actions are reasonably considered to be necessary by the OMF, for example, where:
 - Events beyond the OMF's reasonable control prevent a service from being delivered either temporarily or permanently.
 - Information Technology systems require essential maintenance work, upgrades or repairs.
 - Health and safety or other legal reasons apply; or
 - Improvements and changes are being made to the OMF's programmes, premises or facilities.
46. The OMF will take reasonable steps to mitigate the impact of such withdrawals on Applicants wherever reasonably possible, for example by substituting alternative similar services, and giving warning of forthcoming changes or likely periods of non-availability.

General

47. If any provision of these terms is or becomes void, illegal, invalid or unenforceable, that shall not affect the legality, validity or enforceability of the other provisions.
48. A reference to a statute or a regulation shall include any amendments made from time to time under that statute or regulation.
49. The relationship between us shall be governed by and in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and both parties agree to submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales.

By signing below, I hereby acknowledge that I have completely read, and fully understand the Oxford Mindfulness Foundation's Terms and Conditions (and accompanying policies and procedures) and agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.
